HPD Identification Grid

By recording information such as make, model and serial number you will have a much better chance of recovering stolen items. This information can be entered into a nationwide database that is available to all Law Enforcement. You can also engrave the item with a unique "owner applied number" (example: driver license number). If you don't want to go through the hassle of engraving, then at least write the information down.

Items that do not have serial numbers, such as jewelry or heirlooms, should be PHOTOGRAPHED in detail. Keep a copy of this list, photographs, receipts and appraisals in a safety deposit box or another "safe place" with other important documents. Although it is not a guarantee to get your items back, at the very least gives us a fighting chance to track it down and hold someone responsible. This grid has some examples to get you started:
